ATTORNEY PROFILE

Diana Carey currently chairs the firm's Creditors' Rights and Insolvency Practice Group. She has an extensive background in bankruptcy and creditors' rights, representing student loan guarantors, landlords, and creditors in contested bankruptcy matters, including relief from automatic stay, assumption of leases and executory contracts, and nondischargeability and avoidance actions. Ms. Carey has been a Chapter 11 Trustee and also represented state court receivers, bankruptcy trustees and unsecured creditors' committees; she has at times represented debtors in Chapters 7 and 11.

Ms. Carey's practice also encompasses corporate and business law. Clients she assists include a number of small to medium sized businesses in the Puget Sound area, including manufacturers, retirement homes and medical facilities.

Ms. Carey is a frequent speaker on insolvency topics at bar-related seminars and has been recognized as One of the Top 50 Washington Female Super Lawyers for the past several years by Washington Law and Politics, and one of Seattle's Top 152 Lawyers in the January 2005 Seattle Magazine.
