ATTORNEY PROFILE

Barbara J. Brady is a graduate of Harvard Law School (J.D., 1990). She is a shareholder in the firm and concentrates her practice on litigation. Her practice currently focuses on insurance coverage disputes and bad faith, particularly those involving defective construction. Ms. Brady has handled a broad range of cases, including personal injury, property damage and product liability.

Ms. Brady is actively involved in the Washington State Bar Association. For a number of years, she served on the King County Bar Association's Judicial Evaluation Committee, which screens and evaluates candidates and nominees for judicial positions. Ms. Brady is a long-time volunteer for the Seattle Emergency Housing Shelter Legal Services Program, which is designed to provide access to justice for low-income citizens. Ms. Brady served for five years as an officer in Lawyers Helping Hungry Children, a non-profit organization designed to raise funds to feed children of low-income families.
