ATTORNEY PROFILE

Charles A. Robinson is a graduate of Pacific Lutheran University (Bachelor of Business Administration, 1978, magna cum laude) and the University of Washington School of Law (J.D., 1981). His principal areas of practice are corporate and partnership taxation, mergers and acquisitions, business succession planning, individual tax and estate planning, and trusts & estates. He is a shareholder in the firm, and a member of its Business & Finance Department, as well as its Trust & Estates Department. In addition to being an attorney, Mr. Robinson is a Certified Public Accountant, giving him valuable insight and bringing a unique perspective to his practice.

Prior to joining Karr Tuttle Campbell, Mr. Robinson was general counsel for a wireless start-up company. He previously practiced law for 13 years with another Seattle law firm, and practiced for 6 years in the tax departments of national and regional public accounting firms.

Mr. Robinson has written and spoken on the tax issues involved in mergers and acquisitions, and contributed to the Fishing Industry chapter of the Washington State and Local Tax Deskbook. He is a member of the taxation sections of the American, Washington State and King County Bar Associations, as well as the Washington Society of Certified Public Accountants. Mr. Robinson is admitted to practice in the United States Tax Court. Mr. Robinson has been recognized by Seattle Magazine as one of Seattle's "Top 155 Lawyers" and by Seattle Business Monthly as one of Seattle's "Top 87 Business Lawyers".
