

Ché Carlyle Dawson

Of Counsel
cdawson@karrtuttle.com
701 Fifth Avenue, Suite 3300
Seattle, Washington 98104

206-224-8267 Direct
206-223-1313 Main
206-682-7100 Fax

ATTORNEY PROFILE

Ché Carlyle Dawson has been with Karr Tuttle Campbell since the fall of 1997. He is a graduate of Seattle University (B.A. 1993) and the University of Washington (J.D. 1997). Mr. Dawson practices part-time exclusively in the area of immigration law including business and family-based immigration.

In addition to his legal practice, Mr. Dawson teaches paralegals at Highline Community College. His course load includes an Immigration Law class. Mr. Dawson also coaches basketball and has taught law in the very successful Franklin High School Law and Society program. Mr. Dawson was recognized in 2007 by Seattle Magazine as one of Seattle's "Top 155 Attorneys" as well as one of Seattle's "Top 87 Business Lawyers" by Seattle Business Monthly. Mr. Dawson's background before law school includes treatment and counseling of juvenile offenders.

EDUCATION

B.A., Political Science/Criminal Justice,
Seattle University, 1993

- Dean's Honor Roll
- Outstanding Student-Athlete Award

J.D., University of Washington, 1997

- President, Black Law Students Association
- Board of Directors, Minority Law Students Association

ADMITTED TO PRACTICE

Washington State Bar, 1997

MAJOR AREAS OF PRACTICE

Business Immigration, Family-Based Immigration

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Washington State Bar Association
American Immigration Lawyers Association
American Bar Association
King County Bar Association

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Men's Basketball Coach, Highline Community College,
2003-present
Legal Instructor, Highline Community College, 2003-
present
Boys' Varsity Basketball Coach, Chief Sealth High
School, 1997-present
Law & Society Teacher, Franklin High School,
1999-2001
Mock Trial Team Coach, Franklin High School,
1999-2001
Assistant Boys' Varsity Basketball Coach, Ingraham
High School, 1995-1997