ATTORNEY PROFILE

Gary L. Schill is an attorney in Karr Tuttle Campbell's Business and Finance Department. He focuses his practice on serving emerging and established companies in a broad range of corporate and transactional business matters, including entity formation, mergers and acquisitions, and corporate and partnership taxation. Gary is also licensed in the State of Washington as a Certified Public Accountant (CPA).

Gary earned his Juris Doctor (J.D.) and Master of Laws (LL.M.) in Taxation from the University of Washington School of Law, where he participated in the Moot Court Honor Board Contract Negotiations Competition, the Rural Alaska Tax Assistance Program, the Low-Income Taxpayer Clinic, and was a member of the Business Law Association.

Gary has over seven years of public accounting experience. Prior to law school, he served both public and private companies for three years as an auditor at Grant Thornton, LLP. After law school, Gary worked at Deloitte Tax, LLP for four years where he provided consulting, compliance and audit services to private equity firms, closely-held businesses and large multinational public corporations.
