

MITCHELL C. CORY

Attorney

Direct: 206.224.8021
mcory@karrtuttle.com
Legal Assistant: Julianna Seever

PRACTICE AREAS

Estate Planning & Trusts

Mitch Cory's practice focuses on estate planning and trusts. This includes administration of probates and trusts, as well as representing both fiduciaries and beneficiaries. Mitch has experience handling the full spectrum of probates, from the initial step of filing a petition to closing the estate.

Prior to joining Karr Tuttle Campbell, Mitch practiced with another area law firm with an elder law focus. He also worked as an Assistant Attorney General in Yakima, Washington.

BAR & COURT ADMISSIONS:

- Washington State Bar

EDUCATION:

- J.D., Gonzaga University School of Law
- B.A., History, University of Washington
 - Minor: Human Rights

PERSONAL:

When not at the office, Mitch enjoys spending time biking – including commuting to the office – and exploring the backcountry of the Pacific Northwest.